

Spring Newsletter 2007

Company News

Welcome to spring on Sydney Harbour! The sun is back in the sky and everyone would rather be sailing! So why aren't you?! Make sure you check out the Giveaway at the base of this Newsletter.

This month we welcome Nicole Douglass to the East Coast Sailing Team as Client Liaison. Nicole has been sailing since before she can remember, to start with on her Dad's Laser, then on Manly Juniors, Flying 11's, Mumm 30's, Elliot 7's and Yngling's. She has been the National Champion in the Tasar class with her skipper for the past 3 years. Nicole will bring a new spark to our sailing school and corporate days, as well as the office.

Christmas Bookings

With Christmas only just around the corner we have had a number of bookings for Christmas parties in the past week. Make sure that you don't miss out on having your staff party on the beautiful waters of Sydney Harbour. Book today to secure a yacht.

New Years Eve on Beautiful Sydney Harbour

Bottles of bubbly popping, and laughter echoes across the rippling water. The countdown begins, and you join in with the whole of Sydney – as the new year bursts onto the scene. And you know one thing... you had the best view!

For New Years Eve this year, be a part of the on water action on one of our many luxurious yachts that are for hire, or on one of our organised cruises.

There is no better vantage point for the celebrations, and no better way to greet the new year than being out on the water under the starlight – and fireworks of course! So! Contact Us!

Sailing School Update

Over the next month we will be running Competent Crew courses as well as Introduction to Sailing. For more information on our sailing school and what we can do to improve your skills, whether you are a beginner, or a more experienced sailor – Contact Us for more information.

Vouchers Available for the Sailing School – A great idea for a Christmas Gift for your loved ones!
