

Autumn Newsletter 2005

Company News

Welcome to our Points of Sail Autumn Newsletter! So far this year we have been very busy arranging corporate events with great success and we have coordinated several large regatta's with over 70 guests participating in each team building treasure hunt or regatta. We will be continuing with these events through Autumn, cooler days and less traffic on the Harbour provide an ideal arena for corporate training and a fantastic playground for private groups. We have also had many a twilight and sunset group over Summer, these packages are still available through Autumn although starting and finishing times will be slightly earlier.

We have a new staff member to introduce. Lana Henderson comes from a sailing background and is assisting with business administration, client enquiries, bookings and event management. Welcome Lana!

We are still taking bookings for Easter. Please contact us for more information on what we can offer for your perfect long weekend.

Overseas Sailing Experience

This years overseas adventure is one of the beautiful islands of Tahiti. An unspoilt island, Maupiti has a vibrant local fishing and farming culture and is far away from the mass tourism experienced by Bora Bora, yet still accessible by yacht. Only 6 yachts will journey together to this truly remarkable Pacific destination for a full 14 days of cruising. This soft adventure is ideal for non-and first time sailors and the experienced yachting. The tour is scheduled for September 2005 and places are limited. Please contact us for full details.
