

PRESS RELEASE

Premium Yacht Charters From Eastcoast Sailing

Sydney, New South Wales, Australia - 18th March 2004

Eastcoast Sailing in Neutral Bay have today announced their official launch into the Luxury Yacht Charter scene on Sydney Harbour. Offering luxury Jeanneau or Beneteau Yachts and Seawind Catamarans, Eastcoast Sailing will provide a range of options for individual persons through to corporate events.

As an industry first, Eastcoast Sailing can offer a comprehensive Internet Online Booking Service where customers can browse, book and pay for charters online including gourmet catering options. A unique feature of this function is the ability for individuals to book places on boats for twilight, sunrise, sunset, full and half day charters. Individual customers can view available dates so they can plan their day's activities.

Sales and Marketing Manager Andrew Johnson says, "Everyone loves to sail on Sydney Harbour, so we have made this luxury affordable and accessible to the many individuals that visit Sydney year round. We will encourage local and international visitors alike to enjoy our magnificent harbour."

Eastcoast Sailing also offers Corporate Entertaining, Regattas and Staff Team Building Programs.

A full range of products and services is available on-line.
